A Mass of Celebration

In celebration of the 50th birthday of the modern Catholic Charismatic Renewal, Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish will host a Charismatic Mass on February 18 at 5 pm, (the Vigil Mass for Sunday), with contemporary music by the Catholic group, Breakthrough. Mass will be preceded by Eucharistic Adoration in the chapel from 3:30-4:30, and a time of praise and worship from 4:30-5:00 in the church. All are invited.

The Catholic Charismatic Renewal

By Alex Bogdanoff

The modern Catholic Charismatic Renewal as it exists today is the outgrowth of a retreat held in February 1967 at Duquesne University. Many of the faculty and students present experienced a movement of God's Spirit called being "baptized in the Holy Spirit."

Interestingly, on the Saturday of the retreat, the plumbing in the house (called "The Ark and the Dove") stopped working and participants decided to end the gathering—but not before celebrating the birthdays of several of the attendees. During this celebration, people began to feel drawn to the campus chapel. As they entered, one by one they walked into a profound atmosphere they described as "God's glory," where their bodies trembled, some cried, some were filled with an inexpressible joy manifested by laughing, and all fell to their knees praying in surrender to God's will. They found themselves prostrate on the floor, with their shoes off. Then . . . the water again began running to the retreat house!

This dramatic movement of the Holy Spirit called the participants into a deeper personal relationship with Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior, as they experienced God's love in a profound, personal way. This "fire" quickly spread to graduate students and professors at the University of Notre Dame and others serving in campus ministry in Lansing, Michigan. It continued to spread so that, as of this date, the Catholic Charismatic Renewal exists in over 238 countries in the world, having touched over 120 million Catholics in its 50-year existence. The movement, recognized by the Church, has been affirmed by Popes Paul VI, John Paul II, Benedict, and Francis.

In addition to calling one to a deep relationship with Jesus Christ, another hallmark of the Catholic Charismatic movement is the manifestation of the charisms or gifts of the Holy Spirit, including praying in tongues, prophecy, speaking in tongues, and healing. These are signs that follow the “baptism in the Holy Spirit” experienced at Duquesne (also see 1 Cor 12,14). This non-sacramental “baptism” is seen as releasing the gifts which were given during sacramental baptism.

Many identify the baptism in the Spirit with John the Baptist’s reference to Jesus, “I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming . . . He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire” (Luke 3:16). To foster this experience, those from the original retreat compiled a seven-week teaching and prayer series called Life in the Spirit Seminar, which continues to this day throughout the world. Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish held this seminar in 2016.

As the Holy Spirit is encountered in this “baptism,” one discovers a deeper prayer life, greater appreciation of the Mass and of the sacraments of the church, devotion to the Blessed Mother (who was with the Apostles at Pentecost), a call to evangelism, and Scripture reading becomes more alive in their lives. For more information, see the article by Reverend Francis J. Karwacki, Liaison for the Charismatic Renewal for the Diocese of Harrisburg, at www.hbgdiocese.org under About Us > Catholic Organizations > Catholic Charismatic Renewal.

“I AM CONVINCED that this (Charismatic) movement is a very important component of the entire renewal of the Church... This was my own spiritual initiation, so I can understand all these charisms. They are all part of the richness of the Lord. I am convinced that this movement is a sign of his action.”

— Saint John Paul II

“YOU, CHARISMATIC RENEWAL, have received a great grace from the Lord. You were born of the will of the Spirit as a current of grace in the Church and for the Church. This is your definition: a current of grace.”

—Pope Francis

A note from Monsignor King

Our parish is honored to host this Mass to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the modern Charismatic movement in the Catholic Church. I received the baptism in the Spirit while a student at Saint Charles Seminary in Philadelphia, and for many of my years in the priesthood have been part of Charismatic prayer groups. The 5pm Mass on Saturday, February 18, will be celebrated in a way that promotes the use of the charisms or gifts of the Holy Spirit. There will be praying in tongues at several points during the Mass (including before the Collect, during the elevation of the Body and Blood of Christ, and in the time of thanksgiving after Holy Communion). Some may find this approach to Catholic spirituality very different from what they are used to. It is important to understand this point, so that if you believe that experiencing this spiritual movement will be unsettling to you, you may choose to attend another Mass that weekend. Please understand that this is an authentically Catholic spiritual movement, but—as is the case with many movements within the Church—this approach to spirituality touches the hearts and souls of some more than others.

Parishioner Alex Bogdanoff serves as a 7th/8th grade CCD teacher and prayer group leader. He is also a Candidate to the Permanent Diaconate for the diocese. Alex and his wife, Sally, serve as Pastoral Care volunteers at Holy Spirit Hospital. They have four children.

ROOM 3, Saint Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish is hosting a 10-week program called Freedom From Overeating. Each week, we will gather together and learn to let the Love of Jesus guide us to make peace with food, and with our bodies. There is no cost to attend, except for the purchase of the books. The title of the books are The Eden Diet ($15 at Amazon) and The Eden Diet Workbook ($16.95 at Amazon), but don't let the names fool you. This is not a diet, and it's not about eating bird food. In fact, there are really no food restrictions at all! Only freedom with Christ.
